

MEEZA hosts their first Executive Advisory Roundtable

04th May, 2011: MEEZA hosted the first Advisory Roundtable of its kind in Qatar, where the latest IT trends, challenges and solution innovations were discussed. The event welcomed leading decision makers from top companies along with the Supreme Council of Information and Communication Technology (ictQatar) – Qatar’s telecom regulator, Qatar Science and Technology park and Qatar Foundation.

The event included a series of short presentations showcasing technology use cases and success stories, followed by an open forum discussion. The MEEZA team was joined by Dr Hessa Al Jaber, Secretary General of ictQatar, Dr Tidu Maini, Executive Chairman to QSTP and M/s Noor Abdulla Almalki Al-Jehani, Secretary-General of Supreme Council for Family Affairs . Other esteemed speakers included Mr Hamad Al Hajiri, Director of Shared Services at Supreme Council of Family Affairs, Mr. C. S. Chandrasekaran, CFO at Dohaland and Mr. Sa’di Aweinat, Director of IT at Qatar Foundation.

The discussions covered a wide range of topics, from cloud computing in Qatar to IT business models and regulation ideas for increasing the speed of business. In doing so, the event took the form of a joint platform whereby vendor, regulators, clients and clients-to-be all came together to solve industry challenges while ensuring IT solutions are tailor-made for companies operating locally in Qatar and the region.

‘MEEZA is honoured to welcome all those who attended and participated. The event was a great opportunity for the team to advise the audience on MEEZA’s
