

MEEZA Signs New Deal with the Qatar's Supreme Council of Family Affairs

June 13, 2011, Doha: MEEZA, the leading provider of IT solutions and services in Qatar, has successfully signed a new partnership agreement with Qatar's Supreme Council of Family Affairs (SCFA) , a large government and public entity to join MEEZA's client portfolio.

The partnership includes provisioning full and complete IT outsourcing services that spans from IT infrastructure design, building, management and support as well as IT consultancy and project management. With this new agreement, MEEZA will be providing the necessary IT solutions and infrastructure to help of the Supreme Council for Family Affairs reduce costs, enhance productivity and efficiency, provide business scalability as well as reduce risks.

By signing this partnership, MEEZA will be able to support the government sector, promote international trends in IT services, and most importantly contribute to the 2030 Qatar National Vision of a knowledge based economy.

The Supreme Council for Family Affairs will be the first government entity in Qatar to outsource all its Managed Services to MEEZA while paving the road for other entities to join a World Class IT service that is provided locally in Qatar.

Her Excellency Ms. Noor Al Malki General Secretary of the Supreme Council for Family Affairs said, "This partnership will enable the Supreme Council for Family Affairs to continue functioning in a more professional manner, supporting the main aim of strengthening the Qatari family presence and its role in society."

MEEZA in turn aims to promote increased IT maturity within government and public sectors in Qatar by enabling these entities to focus on their core functions, increase their productivity and be able to rapidly scale their organisational operations to service the Qatari community. MEEZA's services will be provided through local IT experts, and state of the art Data Centres.

This milestone support MEEZA's vision to empower Qatar and the region through its world-class Managed IT Services and solutions, using Information Technology as a tool for addressing business challenges and creating opportunities.

MEEZA Chairman and CEO, Rashid Al Naimi said, "The Supreme Council for Family Affairs will benefit from MEEZA's experienced people, standards-driven processes and world-class technology. MEEZA welcomes the opportunity to become a key IT Services provider to the government and looks forward to working together to support the development of the country. We would like to thank our new client, Supreme Council of Family Affairs, for selecting MEEZA."
